

A Look Into Federal Management & Leadership Development Programs

This presentation will feature a panel of graduates who will talk about their experience as participants in Management & Leadership Development Programs. The panelists will touch on topics such as the application and selection process, program curriculum, certificates of completion, and career success stories. If you're curious about these career enhancement opportunities, or thinking about applying for this kind of training opportunity, this session is just what you need!

PROGRAM SPONSORED BY

Working for the Advancement of Women in Government

DENVER FEDERAL CENTER CHAPTER

PO Box 260162
Lakewood, CO 80226-0162

Contact

Cheryl Howley
720-963-3485
cheryl.howley@dot.gov

Pauline Gibson
303-231-5412
gibson.pauline@dol.gov

www.rmfew.org/dfc.asp

WHEN: Wednesday
February 17, 2010

TIME: 11:30am—12:30pm

WHERE: Denver Federal Center
Building 67
Rio Grande Room

WELCOME

AVAILABLE

PANELISTS:

Amy DeBisschop, Assistant District Director, Department of Labor Wage & Hour Division. She participated in a Department-wide MDP and moved from a GS 12 to 13 after successful completion of her program.

Ella Mae Herrera, Manger, Maintenance Services Division, Bureau of Reclamation. She participated in a Bureau wide LDP and moved from a GS 13 to 14/15 after successful completion of her program.

Jane Wang, Supervisory IT Specialist, Department of Labor Mine Safety & Health Administration. She participated in an Agency-wide LDP and moved from a GS 12 to 13 after successful completion of her program.

JOIN FEW TODAY

www.few.org

Become a part of the only organization solely dedicated to advancing career opportunities for women and ending discrimination in federal service!

