

DIVERSITY...Be the Change You Want to See

Michelle A. Crockett

FEW National Vice President for Compliance

This session will help attendees understand their responsibility to make and bring about change when it is needed. If we want FEW to become a more diverse organization, what are we doing to facilitate this change?

PROGRAM SPONSORED BY

FEDERAL CENTER CHAPTER

Working for the Advancement of Women in Government

DENVER FEDERAL CENTER CHAPTER

PO Box 260162
Lakewood, CO 80226-0162

Contact

Cheryl Howley
720-963-3485
cheryl.howley@dot.gov

Pauline Gibson
303-231-5412
gibson.pauline@dol.gov

WHEN: Wednesday
March 17, 2010

TIME: 11:30am—1:00pm

WHERE: Denver Federal Center
Building 25—Door E-14
1st Floor Conference Room

WELCOME

AVAILABLE

Michelle Crockett has 21 years of federal service and currently works as the National Program Director for EEO and Diversity at the NOAA National Ocean Service. Michelle was one of the founding members of the Seas and Skies Chapter at NOAA and has held the positions of Chapter President, Chapter Special Events Chair, and Regional Training Program (RTP) Chair. Most recently, Michelle served as Co-Chair of the FEW 40th Anniversary Gala.

Michelle attended Georgia Southwestern University and received her certification in Equal Employment Opportunities Studies from the School of Industrial and Labor Relations Cornell University.

Michelle resides in Fort Washington, Maryland with her husband Rock and two sons Andrew and Chance.

JOIN FEW TODAY

www.few.org

Become a part of the only organization solely dedicated to advancing career opportunities for women and ending discrimination in federal service!

[www.rmfeew.org/
dfc.asp](http://www.rmfeew.org/dfc.asp)