

TALK THE WALK

Elaine Love

The "Tiger in High Heels"

You already know how to do the "walk," now it's time to speak up and step into your power. Move into the spotlight, speak up and let others know you are in your position because of your knowledge. Share your expertise and have fun in the process. It's time to talk the walk!

Elaine Love has 30 years as an award winning entrepreneur in a variety of industries. She holds a Masters degree in Communication and advanced studies in Alternative Dispute Resolution from University of Denver. Her experience spans the gamut from managing a chain of Goodyear Dealerships in Detroit in the 60s and 70s to owning various businesses. Her last brick and mortar business was Mountain Castles Property Management in Steamboat Springs. She grew the company from initial idea to the largest property management company in the resort specializing in single family homes.

Elaine is a published author, award winning professional speaker, coach, mentor, real estate broker and telemark skier. If you are looking for assistance in not only surviving but thriving in a challenging economy, Elaine is the one.

She walks the talk.
